

Table Set up

Restaurant: atlantik

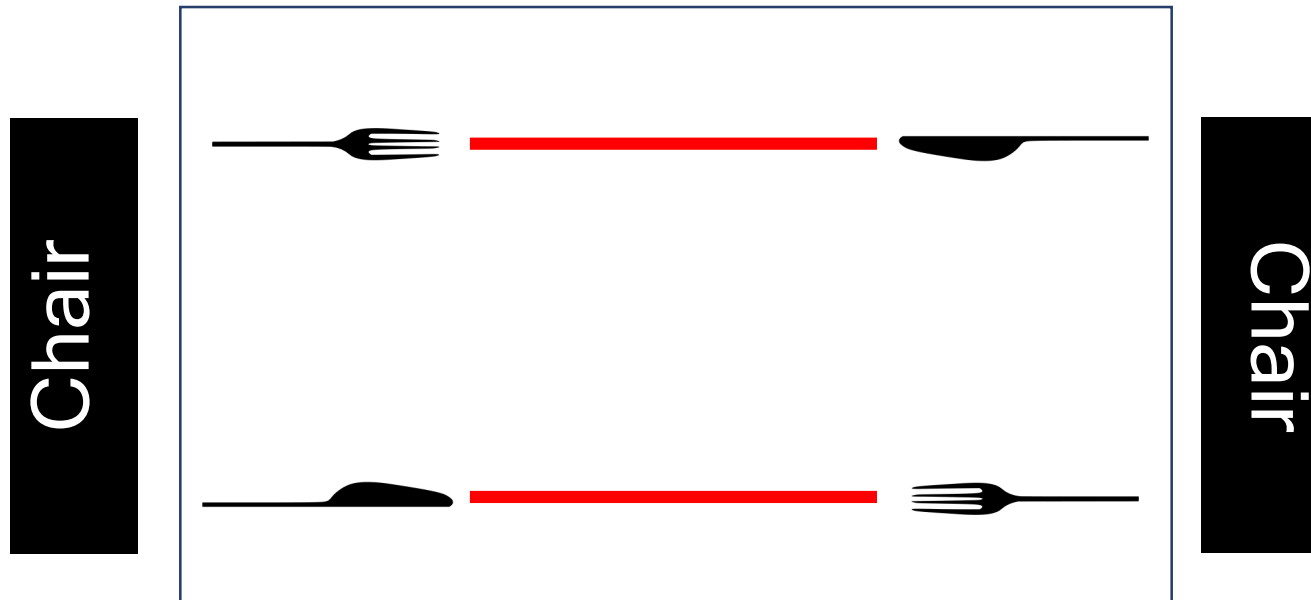

Table set up

1. Clean the table: Ensure the table is clean and free of crumbs, stains, or debris before setting the table.
2. Tablecloth: Ensure it is wrinkle-free and properly aligned.
3. Cutlery
4. Glassware
5. Napkin
6. Salt/ Pepper
7. Additional elements, like decoration, table number, candle etc.

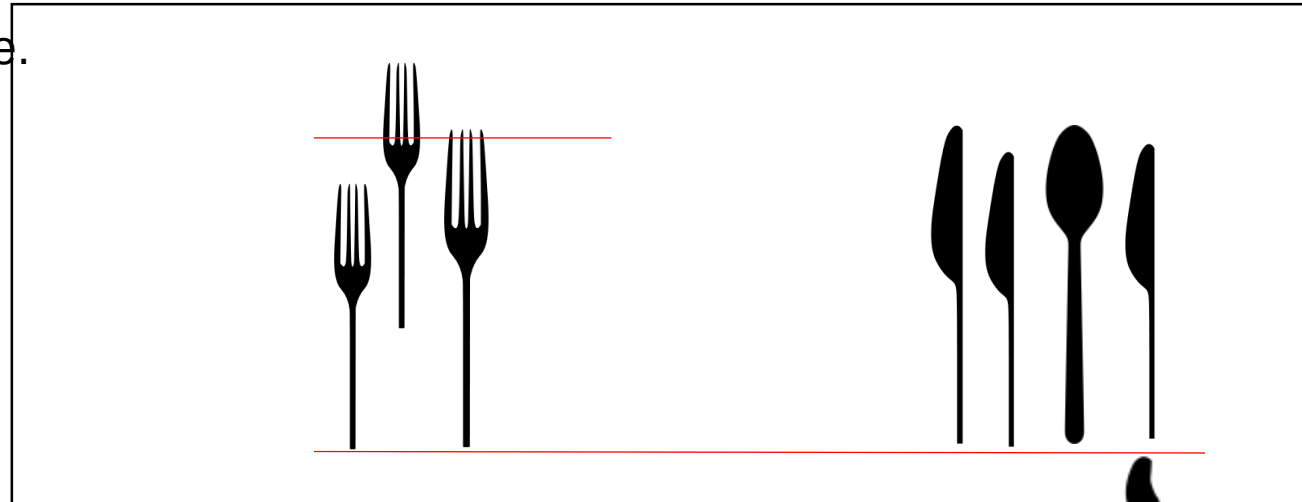

Step by step set up

- First, you set up the main course fork and the main course knife. It is important to note that the space between these cutlery is large enough that a main course plate fits well between them. The main course fork and the main course knife must also be in a line to the opposite set up.

Step by step set up

- To keep the cutlery in line, you can use your thumb as a guide. The distance between the cutlery and the table edge must be about one thumb's width apart
- Once you have set your guidelines with your cutlery, you can continue with the other cutlery. The intercourse fork and the intercourse knife are placed on the left and right side. Please note that the fork must be placed a little bit upper then the main course fork. Then comes the soup spoon. In conclusion you take the appetizer fork and the appetizer knife.

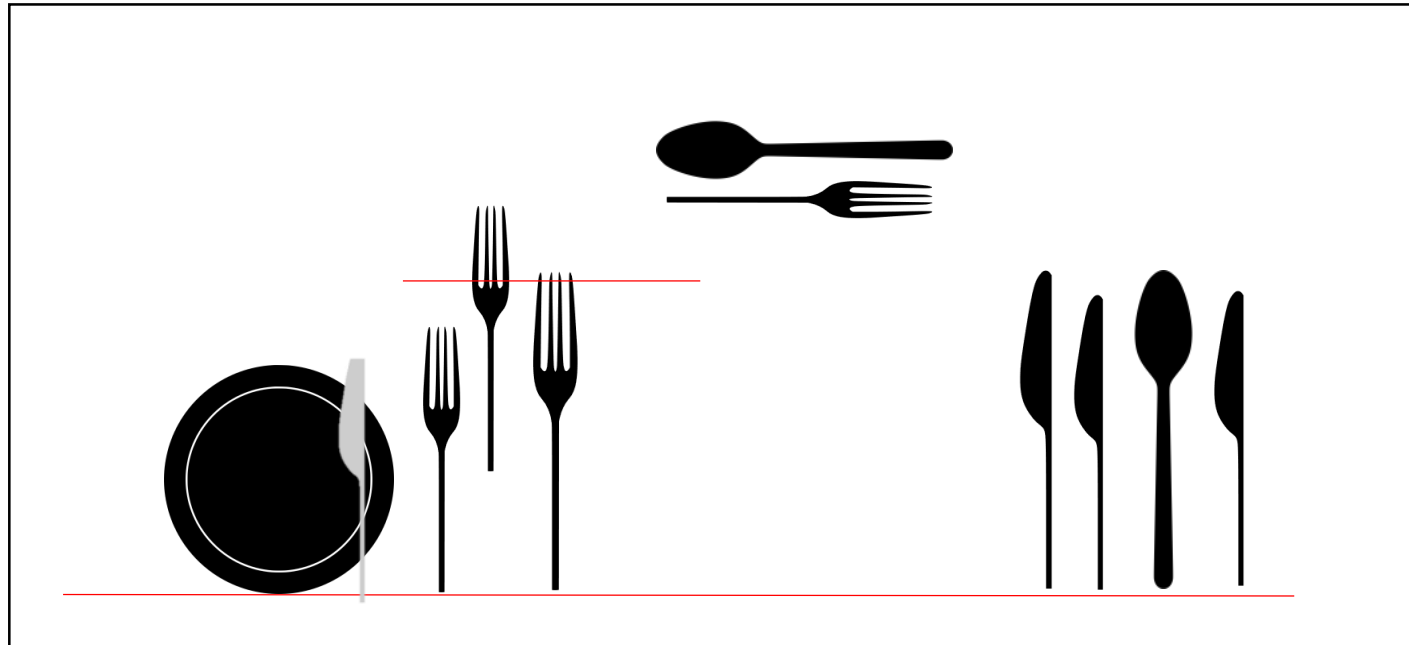

Chair

Step by step set up

- The standard set up also needs the dessert cutlery. First you cover the fork and then the spoon goes on top
- the bread plate and the butter knife are prepared on the left side, make sure that the knife and the plate remain in one line

Chair

Step by step set up

- So, now that the cutlery and the bread plate are set, we can move on to the glasses. The wine glass is always the guideline and is set first. Then comes the water glass. If you have a red wine glass and a white wine glass, you set the red wine first, then the white wine. The water glass will be set upped to the end.
- make sure that the glasses are placed diagonally to the opposite one

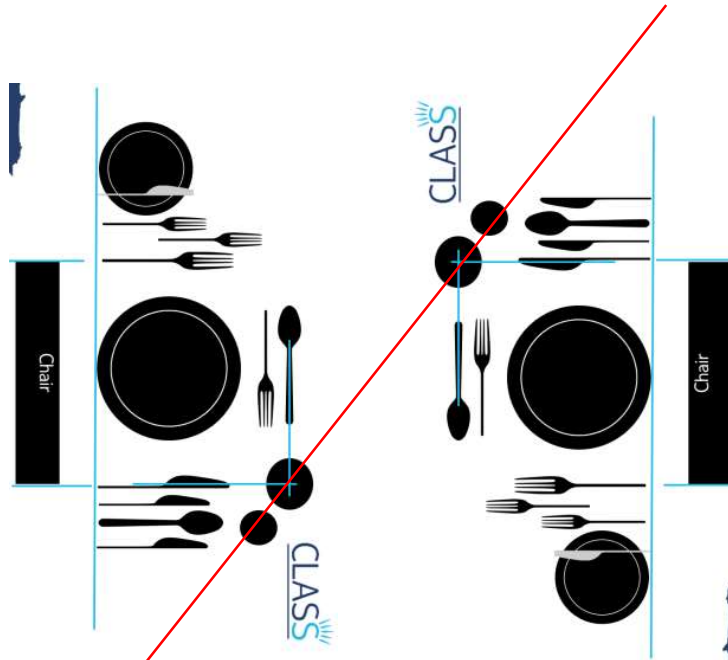

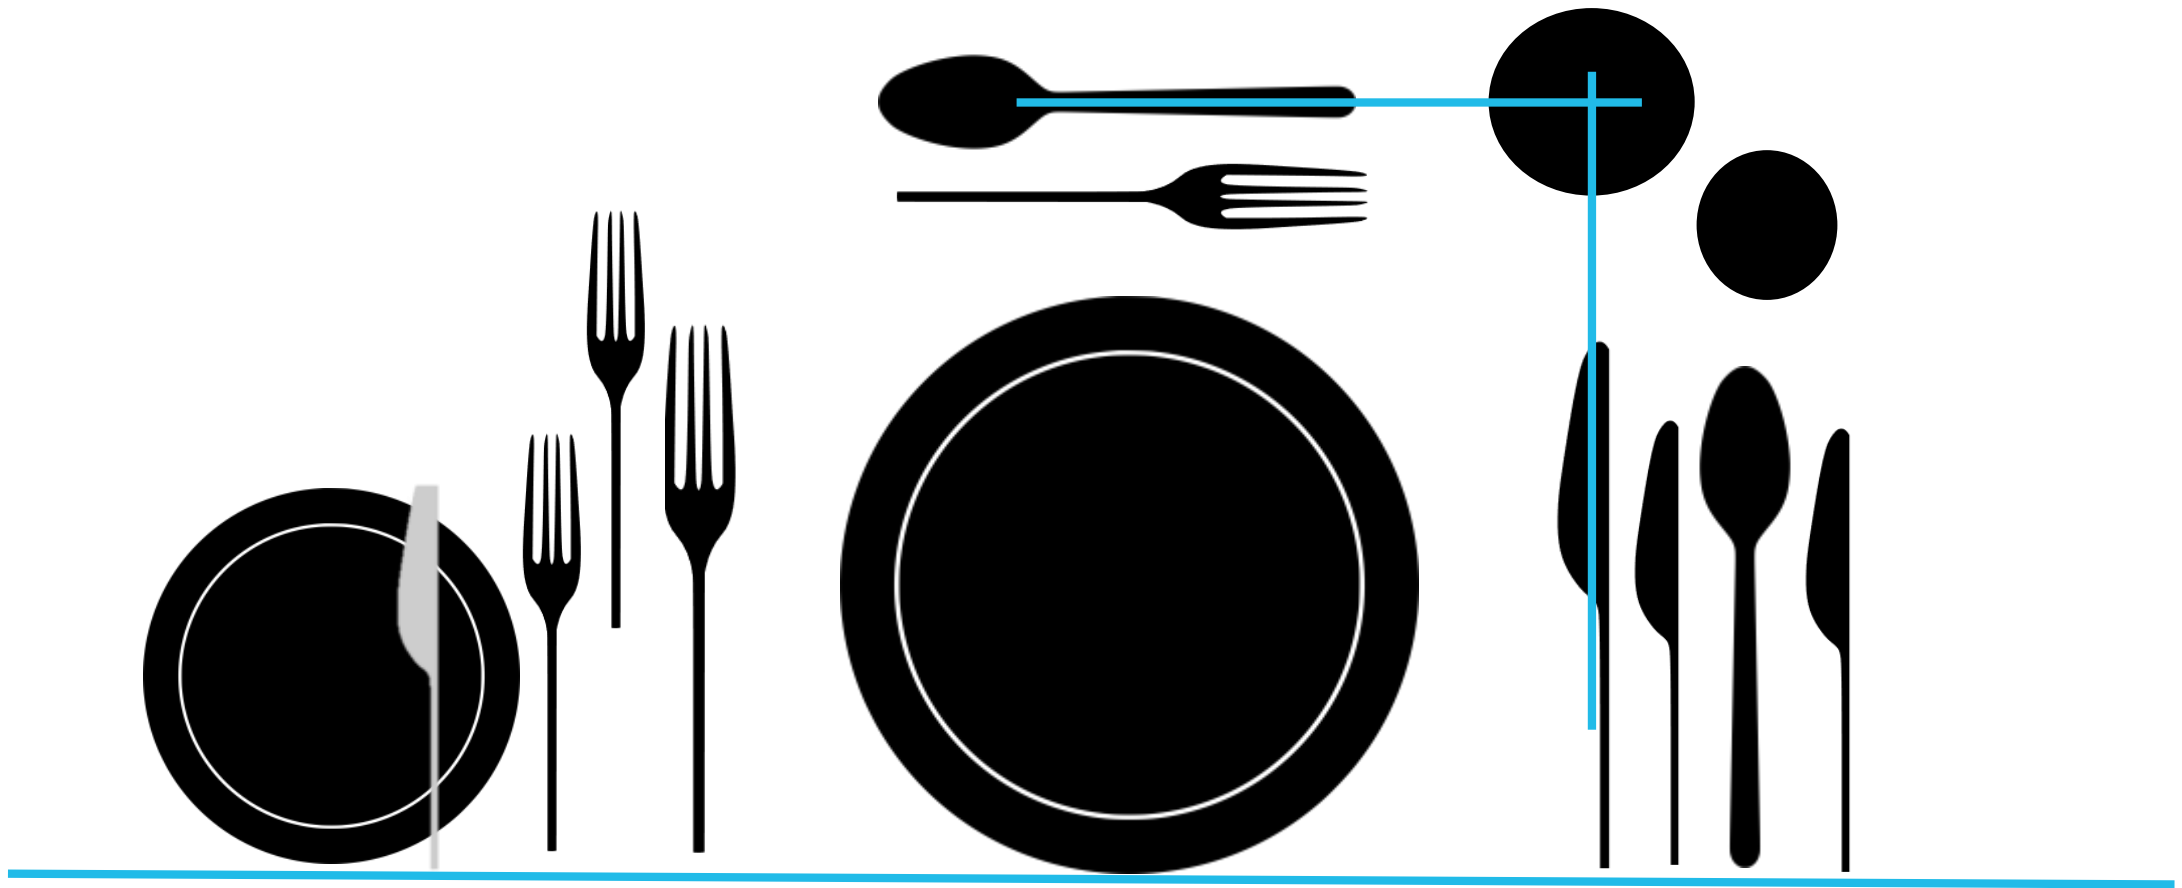

Table set up

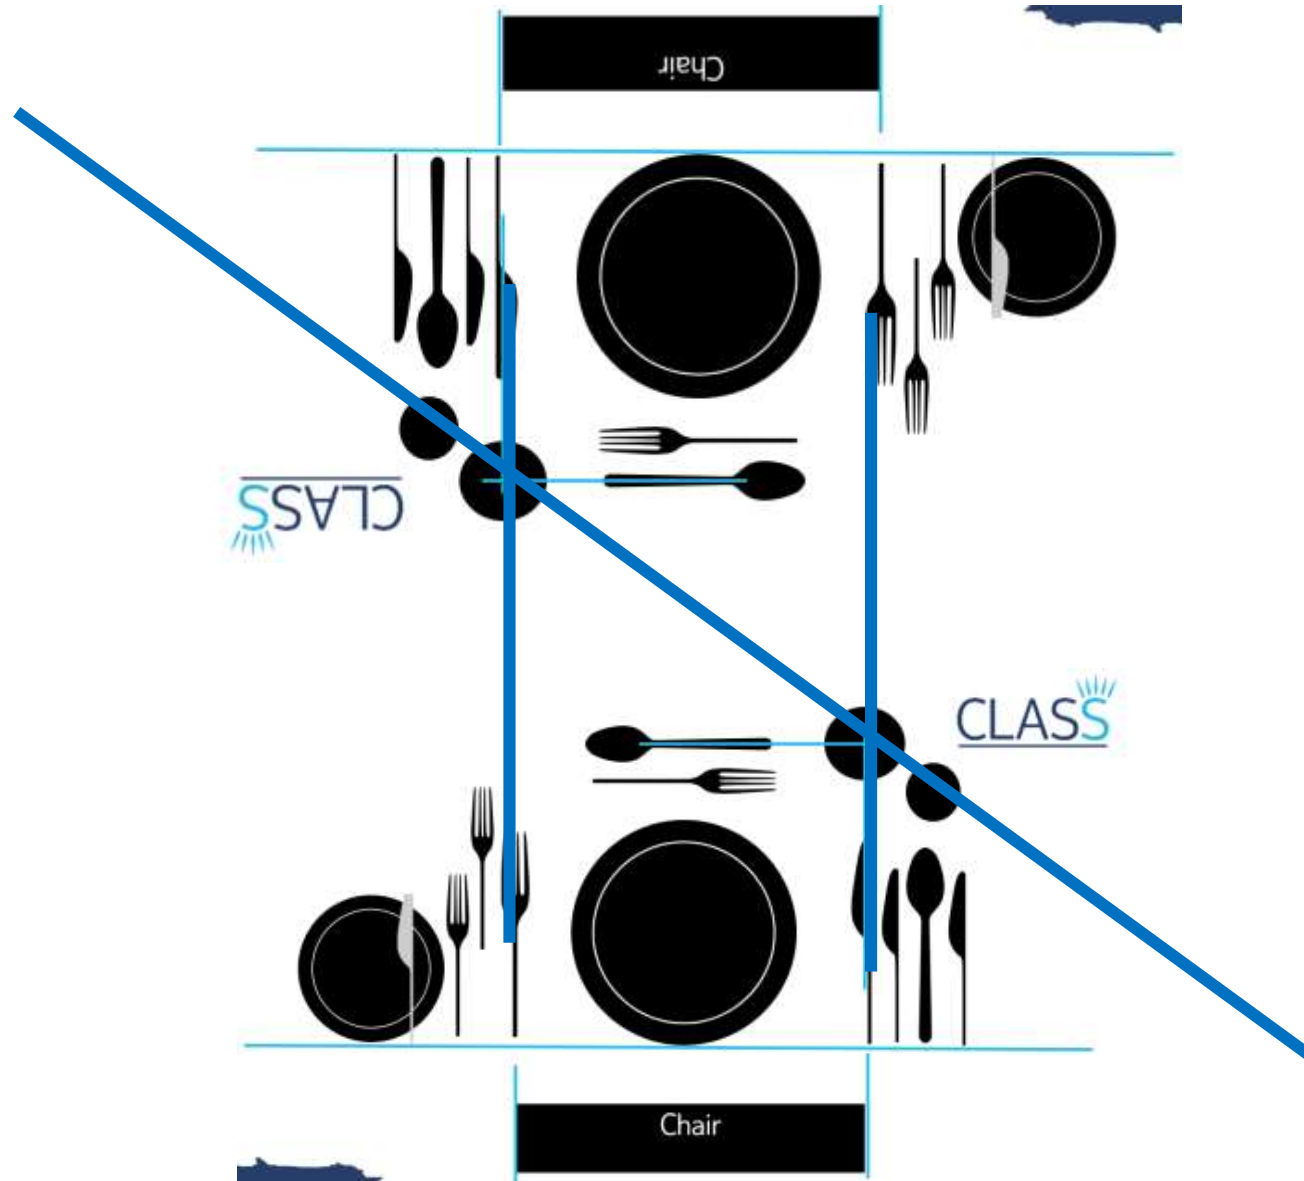

avoid:

1. Messy arrangement of utensils: utensils should be arranged neatly in the correct order.
2. Dirty utensils or dishware: always check that plates, glasses and cutlery are clean and free of stains before setting the table.
3. Incorrect napkin placement: avoid folding the napkin incorrect. It should be neatly folded or creatively arranged.
4. Incorrect number of utensils: make sure to have the right utensils for each course, and avoid missing anything.
5. Setting the glasses: never touch the glasses by the top, always by the stem. Don't forget: it is still the guest's area.
